

Security Document - All airfreight consignments

The United Kingdom Civil Aviation Authority (CAA) have a requirement concerning export from the UK of personal effects. Accordingly we require the following security document to be completed by the shipper and submitted with the consignment prior to dispatch. Incorrect declarations may result in delays to export.

Please answer the following questions. This is a requirement set down by the CAA.

1.	Are you aware of the contents of all the packages?	YES <input type="checkbox"/> NO <input type="checkbox"/>
2.	Did you pack all the packages yourself?	YES <input type="checkbox"/> NO <input type="checkbox"/>
3.	Do any of the packages contain any electrical/electronic equipment? If Yes please specify type and quantity.	YES <input type="checkbox"/> NO <input type="checkbox"/>
4.	Do any of the packages contain known flammable goods? If Yes please specify type and quantity.	YES <input type="checkbox"/> NO <input type="checkbox"/>
5.	Do any of the packages contain any other known hazardous material? If Yes please specify type and quantity.	YES <input type="checkbox"/> NO <input type="checkbox"/>

I declare the above information if true and correct.
